A doubt has arisen as to whether punishments of reprimand, censure and warning could be imposed on retainer drivers and retainer conductors, who are governed by Executive Instructions regarding the employment of retainer crews. After careful consideration, it has been decided that in view of the provisions under clause XV of the Executive Instructions regarding employment of retainer crew, punishment of reprimand, censure and warning can be imposed on retainer crew conductors and drivers for acts of misconduct as defined in the Standing Orders regarding the conduct of employees of this undertaking, provided that the procedure prescribed otherwise for this purpose is followed.
